EDITORIAL CARTOONS PROJECT

DUE DATE: Friday, January 16, 2015

A. CHOOSE one (1) Editorial Cartoon (must be school appropriate) from one of the websites on my SAUNDERS’ WEBPAGE found in the CARTOON folder HERE: (http://www.medford.k12.nj.us/Page/3965) or one of your own finding.

B. PRINT out the cartoon. CUT out the cartoon. GLUE STICK or TAPE it in the BOX found below.

C. ANSWER the questions on the lines found throughout this page. WRITE complete sentences OR TYPE.

D. GLUE STICK OR TAPE YOUR CARTOON IN THE BOX BELOW –

E. ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS BY WRITING COMPLETE SENTENCES:

1. What is the event or issue or topic that inspired the cartoon?

_________________________________________________________________________________________________
2. Are there any real people in the cartoon? CIRCLE ONE - YES  NO

3. If YES who is portrayed in the cartoon? LIST all the REAL people that are in the cartoon.

_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________

4. LIST all the symbols used in the cartoon and EXPLAIN what they represent.

_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________

5. What is the cartoonist’s opinion about the topic portrayed in the cartoon? Support your answer with details from the cartoon and explain how those symbols express his opinion.

_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________

6. Do you agree or disagree with the cartoonist’s opinion? ___________________________

7. EXPLAIN why you agree or why you disagree with his opinion.

_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________